

I benefit from XM Satellite Radio because it gives me more than the usual, commercial-laden programming and better reception while driving. If the National Association of Broadcasters offered better programming with clearer reception, they might not need to fear much needed competition in broadcasting.

XM's traffic and weather channels are a vital part of their service and I hope the FCC will not interfere with this beneficial broadcasting medium. I oppose HR 4026.

Richard Schulist